Statement of Informed Disclosure and Release of Liability

Please initial next to each statement and sign at the bottom. Thank you!

- Consultations with Lux Leaf Learning Center staff are educational in nature, intended to make you aware of the various uses of medicinal cannabis, patient resources, and to guide you through responsible sources of information and options.
- As a legally registered cannabis patient, you are responsible for choosing your preferred treatment plan, method and strains of cannabis products. Lux Leaf Learning Center provides you with reliable information to base your decisions on with confidence.
- Lux Leaf Learning Center Director is a Certified Cannabis Specialist, a member of the Society of Cannabis Clinicians, and has completed 12 CME credits of Clinical Cannabis curriculum through The Medical Cannabis Institute. (themedicalcannabisinstitute.org) Director also has a Masters in Counseling.
- Consultant education does not include the diagnosis and treatment of disease according to the standards of medical science, nor does it include a license for medical practice.
- Recommendations for cannabis use are based on the documented diagnosis of patient physicians. Additional collaboration with patient physicians or other caregivers is available with a Release of Information agreement signed by the patient.
- Consultation services DO NOT REPLACE those of a licensed physician. We advise all clients to seek the advice of a licensed health provider for any illness or persistent symptoms.
- Occasionally cannabis can cause discomfort or unwanted side effects. Stop taking any suggested cannabis medicine immediately if such effects or discomfort occurs, and notify the appropriate healthcare professionals should you need their assistance.
- Although information about cannabis interaction with pharmaceuticals is not well known, it is important that you discuss your choice to use medical cannabis with any doctor providing you with prescription drugs.
- Notice of Privacy: Any information discussed during consultations will be held in strict confidence. Any records of health information will be treated under compliance with HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) standards for patient privacy rights. Exceptions to this rule are information regarding impending suicide, impending assault or homicide against another, or child abuse.
